ADVISING

CONTACTING ACADEMIC ADVISING OFFICE

THE ADVISOR IS OUT ON MEDICAL LEAVE. PLEASE CONTACT ANJELICA HERNÁNDEZ-CORDERO ACORDERO@UW.EDU WITH QUESTIONS ABOUT THE MAJOR. QUESTIONS REGARDING THE DIVERSITY MINOR CAN BE DIRECTED TO RICK BONUS AT RBONUS@UW.EDU.

LORNA T. HAMILL
Academic Counselor
Office: Padelford (PDL) B-504
Phone: (206) 221-0664

Office Hours: The AES Undergraduate Advising Office is open daily from 8-12 and 1-5 during regular academic quarters.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of the American Ethnic Studies major, you can drop by the Advising Office (B-504 Padelford Hall), send the adviser an e-mail message, or call her by telephone to set up an appointment.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SERVICES

Updated information regarding the most recent US Homeland Security announcement can be found on the ISS website: https://iss.washington.edu/

CAMPUS WRITING RESOURCES

The UW Center for Learning and Undergraduate Enrichment (CLUE) CLUE offers drop-in tutoring, discussions sessions led by graduate and senior undergraduate students, and a writing center. For more information, visit their website: http://depts.washington.edu/clue/index.php

Other UW and on-line resources are available: http://lib.washington.edu/research/wri.html

OTHER UW RESOURCES

UW Libraries Ethnic Studies Area Specialists

Area specialist are available in the UW Odegaard and Suzzallo libraries to assist students interested in AES topics, including this Racial Justice Resource guide. Mr. Harry Murphy is the Coordinating Selector for the American Ethnic Studies area. He can be reached at 543-2060 or maurice@uw.edu

Remember: Many questions can be answered by reading the major requirements page in the Programs & Courses section on this website.