LANGUAGE COURSES

Swahili, Tagalog and other language courses do not fulfill AES requirements.

However, these classes can be used to satisfy the University's foreign language requirement, or may be applied to the electives category.

Current and upcoming Swahili and Tagalog language courses can be found on our main courses page or the UW Time Scheduler.

Swahili Courses

- SWA 101, 102, 103 - Basic Swahili
- SWA 201, 202, 203 - Intermediate Swahili
- SWA 134 - Intensive Basic Swahili

Tagalog Courses

- TAGLG 101, 102, 103 - Basic Tagalog
- TAGLG 201, 202, 203 - Intermediate Tagalog
- TAGLG 301, 302, 303 - Advanced Tagalog
- TAGLG 134 - Intensive Basic Tagalog

These language sequences are very successful related offerings of Afro-American Studies and Asian American Studies. Undergraduate and graduate students use these courses to satisfy language requirements.

Tagalog Placement Interviews determine which Tagalog course level is appropriate for your existing language competencies. Placement interviews in Tagalog cannot be used to waive language requirements. No credits are given for taking these exams. Please contact instructor to schedule your placement interview.

Tagalog Proficiency Exams are used to satisfy or waive foreign language requirements. This is also to test what an applicant should know after one year of Tagalog instruction, or the equivalent of Intermediate-Mid emerging High level according to ACTFL standards. To waive 2-year foreign language requirements, an assessment of Advanced-Mid is required. Please contact the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) for more information such as schedules and pricing for Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI).
