LOCAL ARTISTS COMMISSIONED TO HONOR CHINESE AMERICAN HISTORY IN THE WEST

Submitted by Ellen Palms on September 10, 2018 - 1:11pm

A new public sculpture, commissioned from local artists Cheryll Leo-Gwinn and Stewart Wong for an Albuquerque courthouse, will recognize Chinese American civil rights struggles in the US West.

AES's Vincent Schleitwiler discussed the sculpture and history in a recent article for the International Examiner.

People Involved: Vincent Schleitwiler
News Category: Faculty and Staff
Related Fields: 19th Century  20th Century  Art  Asian American  Human Rights  Immigration