LATASHA LEVY TO SPEAK AT  WHY RACE MATTERS PANEL ON THE 2020 ELECTION

Submitted by Ellen Palms on October 8, 2020 - 11:42am

This interdisciplinary conversation bringing together distinguished scholars from history, political science, and American ethnic studies aims to break down this year's presidential election through the lens of historical and present-day dynamics of race in American politics. We are in the midst of one of this country's most significant civil rights movements demanding an end to the violence inflicted on Black communities; how does this impact the presidential election and what are the stakes for the next four years?

October 22, 2020
4:00 - 5:00 PM PDT

Learn more here.

People Involved:  La TaSha Levy
News Category:  Faculty and Staff  Lectures and Events
Related Fields:  21st Century  History  Race and Ethnicity
Related Departments:  Arts & Sciences  Social Sciences  History  Political Science

Department of American Ethnic Studies · University of Washington · Padelford Hall B-504, Box 354380 · Seattle, WA 98195-4380
Telephone: (206) 543-5401 · Fax (206) 616-4071 · Email: aes@uw.edu

Copyright © 2012-2020 University of Washington · Privacy · Terms · Site Map · Contact Us