Assistantships ordinarily require 20 hours/week service of teaching or research positions. Assistants are required to register each quarter for no less than nine (9) credits applicable to their advanced degrees. Stipend levels for Graduate Student Service Appointments are published annually, and conditions of service are defined in publications available in the Graduate School.

OTHER SOURCES OF FUNDING:

An information packet referring you to other potential sources of financial aid is available from the Graduate School. Student loans, scholarships, fellowships, and grants require direct application, and most will require you to have previously filed a FAFSA form (available from the Financial Aid Office, (206) 543-6101); mail the completed form by mid-February.
