INSTRUCTIONS: Please submit one (1) copy of the completed application form and items #16 and #17 to the Department of American Ethnic Studies aes@uw.edu. Request two (2) current letters of recommendation that speak to the applicant's ability to facilitate and manage class discussion. One recommendation letter should come from UW faculty. Send LORs directly to aes@uw.edu.

If you are seeking reappointment in an existing position, please complete items 1-8, provide any new information, sign and date this form. Please request letters of recommendation from faculty for whom you worked and TA'd this year in AES.

To be considered for an appointment in another department or college of the university, you will need to apply directly to that department; contact the appropriate Graduate Office for information.

11.	Approximate grade-point average: Undergraduate  Certification/Certification  Graduate (if applicable)
12.	Honors awarded (scholarships, honorary society membership, etc.)
13.	Other relevant skills not mentioned elsewhere in this application
	Please provide some information about assignments you have graded i.e., research papers, short essays, essay exams, group projects, group writing assignments, etc. Do you have experience using grading rubrics? Please provide scans of teaching evaluations if available.
- 15.	Present position or current academic appointment
	Attach a separate sheet detailing teaching experience and philosophy (especially knowledge and experience dealing with topics in ethnic studies and/or cultural diversity). A resume can provide some of this information; however, we recommend that you also describe specifically the skills and abilities you acquired in each position. (Attach this statement even though it may duplicate materials submitted with your graduate school application goal statement.)
	Attach a brief statement (about 1 page) of educational and professional objectives. You may use the goal statement required for your application to the graduate program; you may also choose to incorporate goals you wish to achieve through an assistantship. Attach this statement even though it may duplicate materials submitted with your graduate school application goal statement.
	Returning TAs, request letters of reference from three instructors, professors, or professional supervisors familiar with your academic and professional qualifications. References from AES faculty are particularly helpful. Ask them to write independently to the Department of American Ethnic Studies, at the previously stated address.

Assistantships ordinarily require 20 hours/week service for teaching positions and are a part of the UAW/UW Academic Student Employee union contract. Assistants are required to register each quarter for no less than ten (10) credits applicable to their advanced degrees. Stipend levels for Graduate Student Service Appointments are published annually, and conditions of service are defined in publications available in the Graduate School.

The University of Washington is an affirmative action and equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, age, protected veteran or disabled status or genetic information.
